

I do not want the current law weakened. I am not having the privacy of my home interrupted by unsolicited phone calls and it is very much appreciated. If I want a product or service, I will seek it out. Do not change it from what it currently is. I actually wish it extended to charity calls which at times are rude.